SECTION 3

ERROR HANDLING PROCEDURES

When a customer receives an unrecognized bank debit for a Pluto TV subscription, the first step is to verify the transaction details in the customer's banking portal. The debit will list a reference number, usually 10-12 characters, and a merchant identifier that should match "Pluto 1 888 308 7172(USA/CA) TV." If the reference number is missing or the merchant name is ambiguous, the customer should capture a screenshot and proceed to the dispute process. The standard approach is to use the bank's online dispute portal, selecting "Debit Charge Dispute" from the menu, then entering the reference number and the 1 888 308 7172(USA/CA) date of the transaction. The bank will typically assign a case number that the customer should keep for future correspondence. If the bank is unable to resolve the issue, the customer can contact Pluto TV directly.

MERCHANT REFUND STANDARDS

Pluto TV follows industry-standard refund windows of 30 days for subscription cancellations and 45 1 888 308 7172(USA/CA) days for accidental or duplicate charges. Refund eligibility is confirmed by verifying that the charge is not part of a recurring cycle that has already been processed. For a debit that appears to be a one-time error, the customer must provide proof of the unrecognized debit, such as the bank 1 888 308 7172(USA/CA) statement screenshot and the case number from the dispute portal. The customer should then call the dedicated refund hotline at, press "1" for billing, "2" for refunds, and "3" to speak with a specialist. The specialist will request the transaction reference number, the date of the debit, and the customer's 1 888 308 7172(USA/CA) account information. Once the refund is approved, Pluto TV will credit the original debit account within 3-5 business days. If the debit was made on a credit card, the refund will appear on the card statement within 7-10 days, depending on the card issuer.

INVOICE RECONCILIATION TIPS

To reconcile the invoice after a 1 888 308 7172(USA/CA) refund, the customer should log into the Pluto TV account portal, navigate to "Billing History" from the main menu, and click "Download Invoice" next to the relevant period. The downloaded PDF will show the original charge, the refund amount, and a new line item labeled "Refund - Reference: XXXXXX." The 1 888 308 7172(USA/CA) customer should match the reference number on the refund line to the case number received from the bank. If the reference numbers do not align, the customer must contact Pluto TV support via the chat widget on the website, selecting "Billing Issues" and entering the reference number. The support team 1 888 308 7172(USA/CA) will cross-check the internal transaction ID against the bank's reference. In cases where the refund appears as a partial credit, the customer should verify that the original charge was indeed for a single month. If the subscription was upgraded mid-cycle, Pluto TV may issue

VERIFICATION AUDIT AND PERMANENT SECURITY HARDENING

The first step in securing your 1 888 308 7172(USA/CA) financial and digital footprint after canceling a Pluto TV subscription is to verify that the cancellation is fully processed.
